SUMMARY

Product Designer with 2+ years designing fintech, food-tech and HR-tech products for clients in the UK, US and Canada. Founder of SkalX, an AI marketing platform I designed, built and shipped to paying customers using AI-assisted development. I take products from user research to production, backed by measurable results: 40% faster onboarding, 35% higher activation, 30% higher task success.

EXPERIENCE

Founder & Product Designer · SkalX — Aug 2025 – Present · Chennai, India

- Designed, built and shipped an AI marketing platform for D2C brands end to end, using AI-assisted development (Claude) and deploying to production on Vercel.
- Designed the core flows: brand and competitor research, content calendar planning, and AI generation of posters, carousels and 15–30s video ads.
- Owned pricing, onboarding and sales; converted the first paying customer from beta and was selected for the iTNT startup accelerator.
- Iterated the product from direct customer conversations, cutting low-value features to focus on what brands paid for.

Product Designer · NeurIX AI — Mar 2026 – Jun 2026 · Remote, Canada

- Led end-to-end UX for a client's multi-portal HRMS platform: HR management dashboard, Recruitment CRM and Candidate portal.
- Designed Recruitment CRM workflows for automated resume parsing and candidate scoring, with bulk actions and smart filters that reduced manual HR work.
- Designed candidate flows for online assessments, AI-analysed video applications, profile completion and application tracking across devices.
- Worked with developers on feasibility and data flows so every feature shipped as designed.

Product Designer · DataReveal — Feb 2025 – Jul 2025 · Remote, Texas, USA

- Redesigned enterprise financial analytics dashboards, restructuring information architecture and data visualisation to cut CFO onboarding time by 40%.
- Designed campaign insight dashboards with drill-downs, shortening decision-making cycles by 25%.
- Ran iterative usability testing that raised task success rates by 30%.
- Delivered two high-priority projects in parallel on tight timelines; mentored 2 junior designers on Figma, design systems and accessibility.

UI/UX Designer · FoodX — Dec 2023 – Jan 2025 · Hybrid, London, UK

- Redesigned promotional campaign tools end to end, increasing campaign creation and activation by 35%.
- Reworked vendor onboarding flows, copy and error states, reducing drop-off by 18%.
- Designed and launched a modular Learning Hub for vendor self-service training.
- Designed mobile ordering and discovery interfaces, partnering with engineers for pixel-perfect, responsive builds.

Assistant Director & Visual Designer · Eskimo Studios — Aug 2021 – Nov 2021 · Chennai, India

- Produced 8+ video campaigns, animations and explainers for food and fashion brands on 24–48 hour turnarounds.
